

FINISH EVIDENCE AT COURT-MARTIAL

Speech For Prosecution By Carriere.

COMMENCED AFTER LABOR'S EFFORTS HAD FAILED.

In View of His Failure to Get Foreign Attaches to Visit Rennes, the Attorney For the Defense Asks For An Interrogatory Commission to Take Their Depositions—After a Secret Discussion of the Request, the Court Refuses a Temporary Adjournment of Forty-eight Hours—Accused of Forcing Testimony.

Rennes, Sept. 7.—[Special]—The evidence was finished in today's session of the Dreyfus court-martial.

Major Carriere began his speech for the prosecution.

This was after M. Labori's efforts to obtain the testimony of foreign attaches had failed and after the court unanimously refused to give him a rogatory commission to interview Panizzardi and Schwartzkoppen.

The court room was jammed to suffocation when the session began.

An unimportant dispute between Ex-Minister of Justice Trarieux and Savigeaud, which was orderly, opened the proceedings.

After this Labori announced his failure to get the foreign attaches to come to Rennes and asked for an interrogatory commission to take their depositions.

Paleologue, representing the foreign office, said it would be irregular, but the appointment of a commission would be effective in securing the desired evidence.

Labori then made out a list of seven questions which he wanted answered.

Refuse Temporary Adjournment.

Prosecutor Carriere then objected to the appointment of the commission, saying that the order of the law court is that it must hold continuous session.

Labori asked for a temporary adjournment for forty-eight hours.

The court discussed the request in secret and Jousaust announced that it was refused.

Absolute silence followed and then there was a roar from the Dreyfusards and order was restored with much difficulty.

Labori then sprung a sensation, saying that Carnaud, in the secret session, had been forced to admit that he was mistaken in the identity of Dreyfus, having been misled by a photograph.

Letters from Esterhazy, having little bearing on the case, were then read.

The court adjourned at the end of Carriere's speech.

Would Live to Prove Innocence.

Former Chief of Detectives Cochofort was recalled to the stand and questioned concerning Du Paty de Clam's action. He retold the scene at the dictation test of the accused, at which he assisted. He described how Du Paty de Clam before leaving the room laid a revolver on the table, hoping that Dreyfus would commit suicide. "but," continued Cochofort, "Dreyfus declared, 'I will not kill myself, but will live to prove my innocence.'"

Mercor then went over Du Paty de Clam's deposition, saying that it proved the guilt of Dreyfus. The general then made a speech, practically summing up the case for the prosecution. Freystaetter seemed to be a thorn in the general's flesh.

Demange replied briefly.

Labori next repeated his request for a commission, which Jousaust curtly refused.

The depositions of experts on the quality of the paper used in the bordereau were read.

This finished the evidence and the general, as obeying the government order, left the court room. Carriere then began the speech for the prosecution.

Prosecution is Confident.

Rennes, Sept. 7.—[Special]—The prosecution is more confident of a verdict than the defense. A reliable prediction is impossible. The women have been warned that it is dangerous for them to attend the trial any longer.

Rennes, Sept. 7.—The salvation of Capt. Dreyfus hangs on a word from Emperor William. This is the general opinion here. If the Kaiser consents to allow Col. Schwartzkoppen, the German military attaché at Paris in 1894, to testify before the court-martial, or to send a deposition, or what is considered more probable, to allow his deposition to be accompanied by the actual documents mentioned in the bordereau, then Dreyfus is saved.

If the emperor, however, decides that it is not in the interests of Germany for Col. Schwartzkoppen to intervene, then Dreyfus' case is hopeless and his condemnation is certain.

To all intents and purposes Emperor William stands the arbiter of the international peace of France, for everyone anticipates that King Humbert will follow his lead. This is probably the explanation of the delay. Emperor William has gone to Wurtemberg from Alsace-Lorraine and King Humbert is at Turin. Communication between the two monarchs is therefore somewhat complicated, and as they will undoubtedly agree upon identical measures in replying to M. Labori's appeal it is possible that several days will elapse before their decision is known.

The opinion generally held here is that Emperor William and King Humbert will allow Col. Schwartzkoppen and Panizzardi to be examined by a rogatory commission and their depositions to be sent to Rennes with supplementary evidence from the originals of Esterhazy's treasonable communications.

NO AGREEMENT OVER ALASKA.

British Officials Say They Have Not Acquiesced in Any Negotiations.

London, Sept. 7.—The officials of the foreign office say they have not officially acquiesced in any modus vivendi in the matter of the Alaska boundary dispute and that no recent negotiations have been under consideration here.

Reginald Tower, the British chargé d'affaires at Washington, it is added, has carried on a discussion with Col. John W. Hay, the United States secretary of state, with a view to a fuller consideration of the Canadian and British views, but it is asserted nothing binding on either side could result from these negotiations. No negotiations on the subject of Alaska had passed through the United States embassy here recently, but the result of the Tower-Hay controversy was daily expected from Washington.

From Century to Century.

Granted that they live another seventeen months, there will be over 4,000 persons ready to greet the birth of the twentieth century who were alive on the last day of the eighteenth century. Serbia is especially the country of centenarians. One man in every 2,260 has seen 100 years, and, in all, Serbia boasts 575 men of 100 years or over. Ireland ranks next, with one centenarian in every 8,130 of the population, or 578 in all. Out of every 45,000 Spaniards one is a centenarian. Norway numbers 23, or one in about 95,000. England, Scotland and Wales rank next with 192, or one in about 177,000. France has 213 centenarians, or one in 180,750. Sweden ranks seventh with 20 only, or one in 250,000. Germany has 78, or one in 702,000. Denmark only claims two, or less than one to 1,000,000 of its population, and Switzerland, with all its reputed healthiness, seems not to possess a single centenarian.—Answers.

A Peculiarity of the Hand-Organ.

"It seems like a very easy thing to do to play a hand-organ," said one who has tried it, "but it is not so easy as it seems: You expect the music to keep time with the turning of the crank, but as a matter of fact it does nothing of the sort. It doesn't swing in with it at all. Other instruments keep time with the touch; the hand-organ does not. You are almost sure to stop short, the first time you try, because the music doesn't come in as you expect it to. After awhile you begin to realize that crank and music have no relation in the matter of time, except as the crank makes the organ go, and you get so that you can keep the crank turning without stopping."

All Night on a Jersey Steep.

From the Newark Advertiser: John Walsh of Plainfield, while on a search for specimens in botany, was lost in "Dismal Swamp," a marshy tract of woodland, and stayed all night unable to find his way out. He perched himself on the trunk of a fallen tree and bided his time until daylight. He dared not move from the tree for fear of stumbling in the darkness into the morass or into quicksand. The marsh is three miles long and a mile wide, and he had no idea of direction. He was awakened in the morning by the barking of dogs and managed to follow the sound well enough to get out.

CAPTAIN BUTLER IS ON RECONNOISSANCE

BURNS SEVEN WAREHOUSES AND CAPTURES REBELS.

Insurgents in Disguise Are Entering Imus in Great Numbers—No Stop Put to It By Americans—Display of Troops and Munitions Will Have Beneficial Effect.

Manila, Sept. 7.—[Special]—Captain Butler and three companies of the Third Infantry have burned seven warehouses filled with rice.

In a brisk fight they captured seven insurgents and five guns. The party is on a reconnoissance.

Insurgents in disguise are entering Imus in great numbers. The Americans do not stop them, as it is believed that the great display of troops and munitions they see will have a beneficial effect.

Manila, Sept. 7.—The Iowa regiment, the last of the volunteer organizations on duty in the island of Luzon, has been withdrawn from Calicut to barracks at Calacan preparatory to departing for home. The number who will sail is 506. Less than 300 of the regiment were left on duty at the front when the order came for their relief, 406 being on the sick list. This regiment has undergone hard outpost duty for three months, during which it has been very much exposed to the rains. Seventy-five members of the regiment have re-enlisted. Although the Iowans participated in some of the fighting between Malolos and San Fernando, no one of them was killed in battle. Thirty-nine members of the regiment, however, were wounded, and nine died of disease.

The insurgents continue to make demonstrations in the vicinity of Imus. The American outposts were obliged to fire volleys the past three nights.

Mail advices from Zamboanga report that the town has been practically deserted.

The facts concerning the recently reported fighting between Dato Mundi and the insurgents are that the insurgents attacked a village in the Dato's dominions on neighboring islands, killing two of the villagers. The Dato's men subsequently drove off the insurgents, of whom several were killed.

Miles Will Not Go to Manila.

Washington, Sept. 7.—The friends of Gen. Miles are again urging the administration to send him to the Philippines to take command. Gen. Miles is said to be desirous of such an assignment. The president has no intention of making any change in the command of the army in the Philippines. He is satisfied with Gen. Otis and will not recall him.

MRS. ROSE M. SHARP UNDER $200 BONDS

OCONTO WOMAN BOUND OVER TO CIRCUIT COURT.

Sensational Developments, Promised in Action—Stoughton Young Man Arrested For Fraudulent Use of Mails—Harry Boardman of Kenosha Charged With Embezzling.

Oconto, Wis., Sept. 7.—At the preliminary hearing in the suit brought against Mrs. Rose M. Sharp for criminal libel on charges preferred by P. A. Badour, the evidence was considered sufficient by the judge to bind her over for trial at the next term of circuit court. She was placed under $200 bonds.

The evidence submitted was in many cases contradictory, and sensational developments are expected as a result. Notwithstanding the efforts of the friends of both parties to hush the matter and make a settlement, the affair is constantly creating more interest.

Regarding the affairs of Mrs. Sharp with Pelker, Stewart & McDonald of Oshkosh, the stories of the two parties are extremely conflicting. It is maintained by Mrs. Sharp that just after she was acquitted from the acid-throwing charge the Oshkosh attorneys advised her to transfer her property to obviate a civil suit. This is denied by a member of the firm, who says that the firm did not know that the property had been transferred until a judgment was rendered against her in their favor, and that they immediately commenced proceedings to have it reconveyed to Mrs. Sharp.

Arrest Young Kenosha Man.

Kenosha, Wis., Sept. 7.—Henry Boardman, formerly deputy county treasurer of Kenosha county, was arrested yesterday afternoon on a charge of embezzling $2,500 of the county funds.

The young man had been connected with the office of the county treasurer since the first of the year, and as he is the son-in-law of County Treasurer C. H. Gronquist, he was given entire management. Two months ago Boardman was given a vacation, and he went to Washington. He returned home Monday and discovered that the shortage in the county books had been discovered. He had prepared to leave the city on the noon train yesterday and was arrested while waiting at the station.

A portion of the money had been spent by Boardman, and this amount, which is a little over $600, has been turned over to the county treasurer.

Boardman was given a preliminary hearing yesterday afternoon, and failing to furnish bonds to the amount of $3,000 was remanded to jail.

Fraudulent Use of Mails.

Madison, Wis., Sept. 7.—Julius S. Dawes of Chicago, was arrested at Stoughton yesterday afternoon, charged with sending fraudulent matter through the mails. The arrest was made by United States Deputy Marshal George W. Lewis and Inspector W. S. Meyer of the postoffice department. Dawes is the son of a wealthy farmer living near Stoughton and there he went when he disappeared from Chicago several weeks ago. He was the managing officer of the Equitable Debenture company of Chicago, which sold diamonds on the installment plan. The officers of the Postoffice department say the patrons pay $1.25 a week for fifteen weeks and were then to receive a $40 diamond.

Dawes is alleged to have been connected with the Northwestern Investment company, to which the Equitable sold out. Both companies failed to furnish diamonds as agreed, the officials say, and the Northwestern company went into the hands of a receiver. The arrest was made on the alleged ground that the scheme was fraudulent. Dawes lived in Chicago seven years, but disappeared when the diamond business of the Equitable Debenture company fell through. He waived preliminary examination and will give bonds for his appearance for trial in Chicago in October.

A Fire in Hortonville.

Hortonville, Wis., Sept. 7.—Fire broke out in this village about 10 o'clock last night and for a time it seemed as if the whole place was doomed. The fire started in the rear of a store building occupied by S. F. Briggs, a grocery store, and as the building was an old one and a hard wind was blowing at the time, it seemed as if all efforts to put out the flames would be fruitless, but through the hard work of the citizens, with the help of two small hand engines, the fire was under control at midnight.

Three buildings, all the property of Mrs. Caroline Buchanan, were burned, as follows: A millinery store, occupied by Mrs. F. H. Buchanan, the grocery store of S. F. Briggs, part of which was occupied by Mrs. Buchanan as living room, and the postoffice building. The contents of only the last named were saved. The loss is estimated at $10,000.

During the progress of the fire Appleton was asked for help, but later the request was withdrawn, as the fire had been gotten under control.

FORECAST OF WEATHER

Chicago, Sept. 7.—[Special]—Forecast for Wisconsin:

Fair tonight; Friday possible thunderstorms.

An Indian Summer.

One of the unenviable features of an Indian summer is the cloud of dust which lies over even the most favored of hill stations, obscuring the horizon, and penetrating every nook and cranny, and wreaking a vengeful havoc with one's clothes. Simla is suffering just now from a bad attack of the dust fiend and praying for rain to allay its onslaught. Gaiety, however, still holds an undisputed sway in this queen of hill stations, and balls, receptions, theatricals and outdoor fetes of every kind and description are the order of the day.

Puerto Rico Once a Forest.

Puerto Rico, say the scientists, was originally an immense forest from the seashore to the mountain summits. It is doubtful if there is a single foot of its land area which was not at one time covered by tree growth, from the diminutive mangrove bushes on the coast, to the giant trees of the mountain side and top. Although still wooded in the sense that it is dotted by many beautiful trees, the island is now largely deforested from a commercial point of view.

Call in the Slot Machine.

Batavia (Ohio) Sun: We have heard of all kinds of things being put into slot machines, but the latest comes from Sardinia, up in Brown county. The individual in question, it is positively claimed, put a calf into the slot machine. His better half sent her good and loving hubby to town with a plump veal calf to the butcher, and he straightway began to hit the "machine" and the last nick disappeared in a very short time.

Shooting Clay Through Iron.

The tallow candle which is shot through a door must hide its head before a seven and a half ounce plug of clay which has been so fired as to perforate an iron plate an inch thick. Experiments of this kind were conducted by Capt. Cooper Key of the British army at the royal arsenal. A special gun was employed and pressed cylinders of dry clay three inches long and two inches in diameter were used.

Author's Luck.

A scientist preparing to write a book learned of an article on his subject in a German magazine. As he could not read German, he sent the article to be translated. His feelings can be imagined when he found that the article was a German translation of one that he had published, and he was charged twice as much for the translation as he was paid for the original article.

Americans in German Universities.

From the Medical Record: There are twenty-two hundred and eighty-four foreign students at the German universities this summer, including three hundred Americans. Only a few of these are medical students, although proportionately their number is fairly great.

Cape Town, Sept. 7.—[Special]—A dispatch says that it is believed that Transvaal intends to force an issue and war may be declared this week.

Pretoria, Sept. 7.—The latest reply of the Transvaal Republic to the British demands has been published. In this reply regret is expressed that the proposals of Great Britain are unacceptable.

The Transvaal government admits Great Britain's rights under the convention and international law to protect her subjects, but denies a claim of sovereignty.

The reply agrees to a further conference regarding the franchise and representation.

OFFICIALS KEPT BUSY AT LONDON.

Queen Victoria and Lord Salisbury Confer—Command in South Africa.

London, Sept. 7.—The colonial office officials were busy until after 3 o'clock this morning. Dispatches have been passing by special messenger between the queen and Lord Salisbury for the last few days.

There is a persistent rumor that in the event of war Gen. Sir Evelyn Wood, adjutant-general to the forces, will have supreme command, Gen. Sir Redvers Buller having the field command, with Col. Lord Paul Sanford Methuen as chief of staff.

The Times advises the government to convene parliament immediately, if necessary, to vote for the needed supplies, adding that "a further loss of time may be dangerous and humiliating."

Private dispatches at Berlin say the most influential of the Boers are anxious for a clash of arms with the English.

President Kruger, through his secretary, cables to the New York World that "We are determined to defend to the uttermost that freedom and self-government for which our people have shed blood in every part of South Africa."

A relief committee has been formed here for the purpose of caring for refugees from the Transvaal.

Has Stopped Clock.

Philadelphia Record: The other night, just as the hands of the city hall clock were pointing to the hour of 2, a large bat that had been circling around the tower in dizzy flight flew between the dial and large hand. The bat was impinged behind the hand by the force of the flight, stopping the movement of the hand for the space of a few minutes. The bat was killed in coming in contact with the dial, and when released fell to the pavement.

A Fortunate Mistake.

Then, after receiving the policy, he went into the woods, and his wife paid the first premium. Two weeks afterward Mr. Kelley died, and as a result of his mistake his family is $2,000 better off.

SITTING OUT OF DOORS.

Four Points Worth Remembering on Summer Evenings.

"Sitting out on summer evenings" is the subject of a little talk in The Ladies' Home Journal, as follows: This is a custom not to be condemned, but to be encouraged under favorable circumstances. From a social as well as a health point of view it is desirable when the necessary precautions are taken—viz:

First.—Protect yourself, if in a malarial district, by keeping the system well toned up through proper exercise and nutritious food, thus fortifying yourself outwardly and inwardly. Disease is not an attack, but a summing up. Keep all of the vital organs up to the proper standard of activity, and they will do excellent sentinel duty and will not allow the enemy to encroach upon you. Malaria (bad air) is more or less prevalent everywhere, but all bad air is not malarial. All things considered, outdoor air is preferable to indoor air on hot summer nights.

Second.—Avoid a draft, if overheated. "Third.—Sit under cover, if possible, if there is much dampness in the air. Remember that electricity is life, and that we do not get it from the earth, but the earth takes it from us; therefore keep your feet from the wet boards or the wet grass in order that the vitality of your body be not reduced by the dampness conducting the electricity from your body. Even the dampness of the clothing is not desirable and should by all means be avoided, as it also reduces the vital force. Sitting under cover, unless the dampness is very penetrating, will not affect unpleasantly one who is in fairly good health.

Fourth.—Protect the back of the neck when sitting out of doors. It is the most vulnerable point for colds in the whole body—that is, if there are no diseased organs. I am now talking of prevention, not the removal of disease. The word "cold" is a misnomer. It is more akin to a fever; the system becomes clogged as the pores become closed, and the circulation is impeded, and what is commonly called a cold is the result. Whatever may be your manner of dressing during the day, when night comes make preparation for the atmospheric change. True, it may still be warm, but it is less warm than during the day; hence more protection is needed for the body. Men, for some reason, are likely to be more cautious than women. A man may have been comfortable during the day by wearing a very thin coat, but when night comes he dons a heavier one, while the woman often sacrifices comfort for looks, and makes no addition to her day attire.

Pocketless Woman.

There is a way of getting over the difficulty by inserting the required item in the front breadth of the gown, which is very apt to show. There is a difference of opinion between the wearer and the maker of dresses on this all important question. The chateleine comes to the rescue, holding notebooks, purses and other necessary impediments, while the pocket handkerchief is tucked up the sleeve. The words pocket handkerchief and pocketbook will have to be changed if this goes on, for they are destined for anywhere but in the pocket. Chateleine bags do not appear to have a very great success, possibly because they are so easy a prey to the predatory classes, but dainty chine silk bags, slung to the wrist by cord, are to be seen at gay gatherings sometimes.

Town of Fulton—Speech Making
By Senator Whitehead, Supts. Ross

Children Take a Prominent Part.

Burr Oak District No. 1, in the town of Fulton, was the scene of patriotic and impressive exercises yesterday afternoon. It was in the nature of a flag raising, in which "old glory" was thrown to the breeze. A large delegation from this city was present, made up mostly from members of W. H. Sargent Post No. 20, Grand Army of the Republic and W. H. Sargent Womans' Relief Corps No. 21.

The children took an active part and furnished a program of unusual excellence. The children were under the leadership of Miss Mida Hubbell, who had them trained in a faultless manner. Miss Margaret Stafford, the teacher, was in charge of the exercises. She delivered a lengthy patriotic address that struck a popular chord with her hearers and was listened to in rapt attention.

After the rendition of the program by the children Senator John M. Whitehead made a truly patriotic speech. George H. Rumrill of this city followed with a short address. Mr. Rumrill formerly taught school near Burr Oak.

William A. Ross, county superintendent of the First district, made a few appropriate remarks, which were followed by a patriotic song by Col. E. O. Kimberley of this city. David Thorne, county superintendent of the Second district, also made a few remarks as did Capt. Pliny Norcross.

A supper fit for a king was served, after which the children saluted the flag. The closing address of the day was delivered by S. C. Burnham. The audience dispersed after singing "Home, Sweet Home."

The entire expense of the delegation from this city was paid by the citizens of Burr Oak school district No. 1.

IT MADE THE CROWD LAUGH

Farmer's Experience Landing a Bike Into a Buggy.

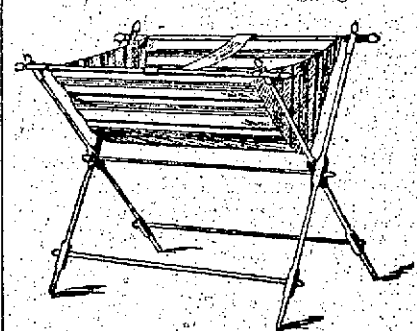

An amusing incident was witnessed by a select crowd of spectators on Main street yesterday afternoon when a farmer attempted to load a bicycle into his buggy. He came out of a repair shop with the wheel and started toward his rig with the confident air of a turkey that has survived fourteen Thanksgiving days. He raised the bike to put it into the buggy and then the fun commenced.

He put the rear wheel in first and the handle bars immediately swung around and uppercut him. He then side-stepped and landed on the front wheel, grabbing it firmly to prevent it from renewing the attack. He then reversed the machine and when he attempted to load it, it assumed every shape known to geometry and got tangled up with the top. Then the farmer forgot the vow he had made many years before, to never engage in vulgarity, exclaimed in a loud, passionate voice, "Oh, sugar!"

After a few minutes of struggle, he caught the wheel off its gaud, loaded it on the buggy seat and then began to wonder where he was going, to ride, himself. This last problem was too much for him after what he had passed through, and he hastened to the nearest saloon to get a drink. When he emerged again, a bystander who understood the peculiarities of the steed of steel, placed it in a proper position, and the farmer went on his way rejoicing.

Out of Door Furniture.

The Designer shows a nice little holder which does away with all annoyance to croquet or tennis players in connection with looking after balls, rackets, mallets, etc. It will hold not only the balls, but everything pertaining to either game, and can be carried basket fashion by the stout strap that is fastened across from side to side. The pictured one has a brilliant scarlet frame, and the holder part is made of red and white duck, bound along the edges with scarlet braid. As neither tennis nor croquet implements weigh very much it is not necessary to have the frame extra strong, lightness being the main requisite. The construction is so clearly shown that even an amateur carpenter could make one. The frame folds at the cross center. The bag portion any woman could make and consists of three pieces, two ends and the long strip that forms both sides, the ends of which, with the strap, are sewed around the slender rods that make the top of the frame. The strap is made of the duck doubled and machine stitched along the edges, or it can be of leather. For a club the monogram or initials might be worked at each end of the bag, plain duck being used for these portions.

TENNIS OR CROQUET BALL HOLDER.

"Do Not Grasp at the Shadow and Lose the Substance."

Many people are but shadows of their former selves; due to neglect of health. Look out for the blood, the fountain of life, the actual substance; keep that pure by regular use of Hood's Sarsaparilla and robust health will be the result. Dyspepsia, weakness, and other worries will be things of the past and life will be worth living.

Choice effects in them will certainly be scarce a little later. Look where you will you cannot find such dress goods for the money. A lucky July purchase put 20 pieces of wool poplins in our hands at just about half price. The styles are plain and iridescent, the quality excellent, width 44 inches; really worth $1.50, but here only $1.00.

MANY KILLED AND INJURED.

Thirteen Dead and About Sixty Hurt—Rear-End Collision at Connersville, Pa. Results in Slight Injuries to About Fifty Persons.

Connersville, Pa., Sept. 7.—Probably fifty persons were injured in a rear-end collision on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad at Connersville station Wednesday. The presence of mind of Engineer John Haggerty saved the lives of many. Following is a partial list of the injured:

Zuck, L. K., Mount Pleasant; bruised knee and face and head cut.

The first section of train No. 5 and an emigrant special of eight Wagner sleepers ran into the rear end of the Cumberland accommodation. Both trains were west-bound, being due in Pittsburg shortly after 7 o'clock. Engineer Murray of the emigrant train lost control of his engine, the air brake refusing to work, and it crashed into the rear end of the accommodation, which was standing in front of the station and was crowded with passengers.

Engineer Haggerty, who was oiling his engine, saw the runaway train coming and sprang aboard his engine, throwing the throttle wide open. The accommodation train lurched forward, but not quick enough to escape a collision. The crash was terrific. Two coaches of the accommodation were wrecked, the rear end of the last one being crushed as though it had been an eggshell. The coaches were filled with passengers. Many were covered with the wreckage and had to be helped out.

PRaises SENATOR SPOONER.

The Washington correspondent of the Portland, Wash., Daily Oregonian, places Senator John C. Spooner in the presidential class, speaking of him as follows:

John C. Spooner is an intellectual giant. He is one of the few men that can discuss for four or five hours in the United States senate a subject and hold the attention of all his colleagues all the time, and of crowded galleries as well. When he finishes a speech very little remains that he has not thoroughly covered, and in a manner to make it also absolutely intelligible to the people who hear him, and to those who read the speech. It must not be understood by this that he is verbose or wastes words. Nor does he elaborate any point to such an extent as to become tiresome and dreary. He makes his point and illustrates it sufficiently to be well understood and leaves it and passes on to the next subject. As an evidence of his tremendous ability in these lines, it is sufficient to note that unlike nearly every senator that makes a speech, he does not write it out and read it. He has copious notes and authorities, showing that he has studied the subject very carefully, but he does not lack for words in which to frame his sentences, and speaks extemporaneously, passing from one head to another, according to the line of argument he is pursuing. As a practicing lawyer he has few superiors in this country. Senator Spooner opposed the war with Spain as long as he could. He believed that with proper negotiation war could have been averted, and that it would have been better for the United States to have remained at peace; and to have established by diplomatic means an independent government in Cuba. After it became apparent that war was coming, in spite of the conservative element of the country, he supported every war measure, and he is a man who does not shrink from the responsibilities which the war brought, and is probably now better equipped to discuss and vote upon the various problems which are presented than almost any other man in public life. Senator Spooner possesses those rare qualifications which make a man not only a good senator, but would make him an excellent president.

Milwaukee Journal: The Chicago papers report that the railroads entering that city handled more passengers in the ordinary course of business during the last few days than they did at the World's fair. This refers, of course, to the number transferred through the city, not to the local traffic. The explanation given is that people have means for travel, which they have not had for some time, and so make those long-delayed visits. The rush just at this time is also partly due to the close of the vacation season. But it remains true that there has been a wonderful increase in the summer's passenger traffic. Besides this, excursions have been more numerous and better patronized than ever. All these things point in one direction; that the financial pressure of the last few years is off.

A correspondent at Dobbs' Ferry, N. Y., writes The Gazette enclosing a printed circular prepared by the late Robert G. Ingersoll in which he denies the authorship of the "temperance lecture" credited to him, and published in The Gazette of July 29. The first part of the article was Mr. Ingersoll's, but the greater portion of it was not. A noted temperance lecturer took Mr. Ingersoll's part as a text and added the rest, thus giving the impression that the whole was Ingersoll's. The article has been repeatedly published in both books and other publications, although Ingersoll had hundreds of times disclaimed the authorship.

The Lowell, Mass., man, who is suing because of the alienation of his wife's affections, placing his damages at $300, should discontinue the action, move to Janesville, and begin a suit for "loss of society, etc., etc., etc."

The Kenosha Old Maids League attended the wedding of one of the members, attired in deep mourning. The old maids set up the claim that they did this because they were sorry to lose their late sister, but the evidence tends to show that their grief was greatest because of the fact that they were not the bride.

Two Chicago boys have confessed to a brutal murder, and say that they were inspired to the deed by reading dime novels. The suggestion may be in order, therefore, that the relentless pursuit of "the deadly cigarette" be abandoned long enough to smother a few cords of blood-and-thunder literature.

Chief Hogan recently shot at a burglar, and missed him. A close inspection of the chief's coat will prove the fact that there are no brass buttons upon it. Cause and effect, apparently, still go hand in hand.

E. Burton Holmes, the traveler and lecturer, has just returned from the Philippines, and says that Manila is one of the most delightful places he ever visited.

The attorneys in the Plankinton bank suits at Milwaukee seem determined to try the case under Marquis of Queensbury rules.

The "man-with-the-white-hat" is, of course, exceedingly liable to "get shot in the neck" one of these fine evenings.

Think of a prize fighter laboring under the name of "Goefrey Thorne!" No wonder he's "down and out."

PRESIDENT BLABON VISITS GOLF LINKS

EFFORT BEING MADE TO EXTEND STREET RAILWAY.

Joseph P. Baker, George M. McKey and the Officer Visit the Club Quarters—Committee Feels Very Much Encouraged—Would Attract Much Larger Crowds.

There is an effort being made by the members of the St. Mary's Golf club and others, to induce President Blabon of the Janesville Street Railway company to extend the line from Washington street to the Buckletoe links, and it is to be hoped that this extension will be made.

Joseph P. Baker and George M. McKey of the golf club, had the owner of the local street railway in tow last evening and took him out to the club house in order that he might see how the land lay. While Mr. Blabon did not make any definite promises, he did not veto the scheme, by any means, and the committee feels very much encouraged. If Mr. Blabon remained in the city for any length of time he would soon see that more people went out to the golf club than to any other place in the city, with possibly the exception of the cemetery, which naturally attracts a large number of visitors.

The Golf and Country clubs combined, have a large membership, as it is, but if the grounds were easier of access there is no doubt but that the membership could be easily doubled, and a car line to the links would profit greatly thereby. Then again there are a great many local people who have never been able to get out to inspect the club house and grounds on account of there being no transportation facilities, while if they could go out on the cars, many would avail themselves of the opportunity.

Mr. Blabon said the other day that extensions of the line would be made when the occasion demanded it. The occasion would seem to be at hand, and it is now "up to" the gentlemen from the Quaker City to make a profitable investment.

PICNIC AT CRYSTAL SPRINGS

Annual Picnic of St. Mary's Church Congregation.

The congregation of St. Mary's church held their annual picnic at Crystal Springs park today and all report a delightful time. The steamer Columbia began her trip at 9 o'clock this morning and when the noon hour arrived there was a large number of people on hand to partake of the individual luncheons which were spread beneath the trees. Smith's orchestra went up on the 1 o'clock boat and rendered some excellent music during the afternoon. The occasion and the picnic was one of the most successful ever given by the church.

At 7:30 o'clock this evening, stereoscopic views of the Spanish-American war will be a special feature. This will be preceded by a chorus of children, who will sing that thrilling, patriotic song entitled, "Cuba's Dream."

WALTER GROVE, IS INJURED

Falls From Roof of Gas House—Gash Cut in Wrist.

Walter Grove of 54 Washington street, met with quite a painful accident this morning. With others, he was engaged in putting a new tin roof on the gas house on North Bluff street. He made a misstep and fell to the ground, a distance of about twenty feet, falling on a piece of sheet iron. A gash about two inches long was cut in his wrist and he was otherwise injured. Dr. James Mills was summoned to the scene and made the unfortunate man as comfortable as possible. While the injuries were quite painful, the attending physician does not consider them dangerous.

LOST DIAMOND FOUND AT LAST

Frank L. Smith's Jewel Picked up by Little Girl.

A year or two ago while Frank L. Smith of this city, was at Edgerton, he had the misfortune to lose a valuable diamond at the Edgerton base ball park. He had given up all hopes of ever regaining his precious jewel, in fact the incident had about escaped his memory. Yesterday a little girl found the stone and Mr. Smith was informed of the finding by a gentleman who remembered the loss he had sustained. To say that Mr. Smith is pleased is too mild an expression. As the stone was valued at several hundred dollars, he certainly has reason to rejoice.

One Way of Getting Letters.

A distinguished prima donna recently called for her letters at a postoffice in a provincial town.

"Have you any evidence of identity?" inquired the clerk.

"No. Unfortunately I have left my cards at home. But it is all right, I am Marianne Brandt, the prima donna."

"I'm afraid we must have some other evidence," returned the clerk. "Any lady could say that."

"Yes, but any lady could not prove it. Just listen for a moment."

The applicant lifted up her voice and sang a cadenza with such brilliant effect that every door in the neighboring shops opened and twenty heads popped out.

The clerk waited until she had finished. Then he simply said:

"Thank you. Here are your letters."

Monster Peach Tree.

Kent county, Maryland, has the distinction of having what State Entomologist Johnson declares to be the monster peach tree of the United States.

The big tree is at Napley, the fine estate of Alan Harris in the tenancy of Robert Wickes. The trunk is sixty-seven inches in diameter or about the size of an ordinary kerosene barrel.

Three of the limbs are twenty-two inches, twenty-nine inches and thirty inches in circumference, respectively.

The tree is twenty-five years old, is vigorous and in full bearing at the present time.

INCREASE LUMBER STORAGE CAPACITY

JOHN THOROUGHGOOD & CO.'S IMPROVEMENTS.

To Erect a Structure at Their Box Factory on Main Street—To Be Eighteen Feet Wide and Two Hundred and Twenty-six Feet Long—Prosperous Season.

John Thoroughgood & Company are about to increase their lumber storage capacity at their box factory on Main street, and will build a structure on the river bank at the rear of their property eighteen feet wide and two hundred and twenty-six feet in length.

Some of the piles on which the platform will rest are already on the ground, and the work of driving them will be commenced within a few days. The pile driving crew of the C. M. St. P. R'y. Co. have been engaged to place the foundation and they will begin operations as soon as they finish the work at the plant of the New Doty Manufacturing Company, where they are now employed.

Thoroughgood & Company have been crowded for room for some time, and the proposed addition will be a great improvement, as they have heretofore been obliged to store a quantity of lumber used in their business, on the top floor of the building. Since the first of June, over one hundred carloads of lumber have been received, which indicates that they are doing their share of the box business. The company reports a prosperous season, and the fact that they are often compelled to work nights to keep up on their orders, will bear them out in their statement.

A PLEASANT DAY AT SPRINGS

Edgerton Sunday School Classes Enjoyed Yesterday's Outing.

A picnic party from Edgerton held full sway at Crystal Springs park yesterday. The merry-makers were members of two Sunday School classes from Tobacco Town, who drove overland to the scene of the day's festivities. The day was enjoyed in amusements of various kinds, in fact there was not a dull moment to the young people who entered into the gayety with a zest that marked the day as one of real pleasure to the participants. A trip up river on the steamer Columbia was one of the features. The crowd dispersed in the evening well pleased with their outing.

"Gentlemen of the jury, have you agreed upon a verdict?"

"We have not," replied the foreman, "and what's more we never will be able to. You see judge," he added confidentially, "it's just this way: When the lawyer for the defense got through talking we were unanimously of the opinion that his client should be acquitted, and the prosecuting attorney, disbarred, if not hanged, and when we had heard the prosecuting attorney we decided that the prisoner was guilty and his lawyer ought to get twenty years in the penitentiary as well. Then you gave us about forty-five minutes of instructions and we were up in the air, so to speak, and so confused that we have been unable to agree upon anything except that both attorneys ought to be convicted."—Chicago Post.

PRETTY AND PATRIOTIC.

Heroine of the Flag
Raising at Ponce, Porto Rico.

When the American soldiers invested Ponce it was found that the small supply of American flags had been exhausted and not one was left to hoist over the city hall of the captured city. At this juncture a bright and attractive young woman appeared with a fine silk flag. The soldiers cheered her enthusiastically, and her emblem was soon run up on the tall flagstaff where the red and yellow banner had waved for so many centuries.

The heroine of this flag raising incident in Ponce was Miss Carmen d'Antonsanti, who is now visiting in Brooklyn, which city has been her home for most of her life. Her father was a native of Porto Rico, where he owned large sugar plantations. He hated Spain and the Spanish intensely, however, and would have headed a revolt many years ago had he been supported. His admiration for the United States and all things American led him to establish a home in Brooklyn and to have his daughters educated there. So eight of Miss d'Antonsanti's 19 years have been passed in that city.

But just previous to the breaking out of the Spanish-American war Miss d'Antonsanti and her widowed mother happened to be living in their home in Ponce. Their American sentiments being well known, they were much persecuted, and at last they were forced to fly from Ponce. Their home was burned soon after their departure.

Among the treasures Miss Carmen took with her at the time of her flight to her uncle's house in the interior of the island was a silk American flag which she had brought from Brooklyn. She concealed it by sewing it as a lining into her petticoat. When the news came of the landing of the American troops, she hurried down to Ponce to meet them, waving the stars and stripes. That is how her flag came to be borrowed for the purpose of signifying the surrender of the city. It has been returned to her, and she is very proud of it, as well she may be.

The Famous Laughing Plant.

The seeds of the laughing plant of Arabia produce the same effect upon persons as laughing gas. The plant attains a height of from two to four feet, with woody stems, wide-spreading branches and bright green foliage. Its fruits are produced in clusters and are of a yellow color. The seed pods are soft and woolly in texture and contain two or three black seeds of the size of a Brazilian bean.

Their flavor is a little like opium and their taste is sweet; the odor from them produces a sickening sensation and is slightly offensive. The seeds, when pulverized and taken in small quantities, have a peculiar effect upon man. He begins to laugh loudly, boisterously; then he sings, dances and cuts all manner of fantastic capers.

Fountains the Fashion.

The newest fad among the greatly fashionable house owners in New York is the fountain. The fountain lately set up by the William Sloanes in their remodeled palace is a illustration of what is going to happen in scores of costly houses before another year. Everybody who is anybody will want this "final touch" to the masses of flowers, ferns and palms that now decorate palatial interiors. In Cyde Fitch's bijou residence—and it is said he was first to introduce the fountain—there stands in one window a precious carved marble font that came out of an old church in Italy, in which gold fish now swim about. The idea has spread rapidly, for exquisitely chiseled marbles, arranged for running water, have been acquired by other New Yorkers, and the effect in every instance is pronounced enchanting, especially at this season.

Her Interpretation of It.

The conversation had flagged a little, and he felt it his duty to say something. "In an address made in Boston," he remarked, "a reverend gentleman greatly deprecates the use of arms." "Bostonians are so cold, anyway," she returned spiritedly, "that I am convinced on that plan may satisfy them, but he fools himself if he thinks it ever will be popular elsewhere."

The New Cactus Brand.

The drought discovered many resources before unknown. Mr. Strathearn, in Ventura county, Cal., had to carry 800 head of cattle through the dry time, and did it by feeding them the prickly pear cactus. The plant was placed in piles with brush and set on fire to burn the thorns off. The cattle did well feeding on the pulpy leaves. The plant was finally fed chopped up fine, thorns and all, and the cattle ate it with no inconvenience from the thorns. Milch cows especially did well on cactus. We may soon expect the appearance in the market of the cactus brand of beef and butter.

Why She Did It.

It was evident the moment she entered the parlor that he was angry. "What do you mean by suing me for breach of promise?" he demanded. "I never proposed to you in my life." "Why, of course you didn't," she answered in a conciliatory tone. "And I wouldn't have accepted you if you had. But you know I am going on the stage, and I must make some preparations."

Community After Dynamite.

Laport, Ind., Sept. 7.—Intense excitement still prevails in the vicinity of Lapaz, Marshall county, where the residence of Rev. M. L. Peters, the Lutheran pastor, was wrecked by the explosion of dynamite. The people have become thoroughly aroused by the outrage and organized effort will be made to apprehend the wreckers of the home of the minister. Peters for some time has been waging war on the saloon in that place, preaching from his pulpit against it, as well as being instrumental in the arrest of the proprietors at various times for violating the law, and with the prosecution of other men for drunkenness. His activity in the prosecution of the anti-temperance people brought down upon him the hatred of that element.

Germany Wants American Apples.

New York, Sept. 7.—American apples are in such great demand in Germany this year that shipments have commenced one month earlier than usual. The first consignment left on the steamship Labn and was from the Hudson river district. Last year 22,351 barrels were sent abroad. This year it is expected the shipments will reach 100,000 barrels.

LOCAL EVIDENCE.

One Line of Janesville Evidence is Worth a Column of Foreign Testimony.

Home endorsement its salient point. Mr. Thos. Pratt of 231 South Main St. says: "I doctored off and on for forty years, attempting to rid myself of backache, which came on by spells, very painful when at their height and even when somewhat allayed, the dull aching grinding was sure to manifest itself, if I overtaxed myself, caught cold or did any work which brought a strain on the muscles of the back. Often I have been so lame and sore that there were days I was confined to my room almost helpless, certainly unable to get up or down. Like a great many other people in Janesville I procured Doan's Kidney Pills at the Janesville Co's., drug store, led to do so by the peculiar advertisement which riveted my attention. After taking a thorough course of the remedy I was able to go to the quarry and sling an eighteen pound mer without showing any signs of a recurrence. If I am subjected to future attacks I know what remedy to employ."

Doan's Kidney Pills are for sale by all dealers. Price, 50 cents. Mailed by Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y. sole agents for the U.S. Remember the name Doan's and take no other.

Appleton, Wis., Sept. 7.—Word was received this morning that the business district of Hortonville was being destroyed by fire. A special train was sent with engines and crews. At least ten stores with their contents had been destroyed at last accounts.

BANKERS DEMAND GOLD LAW.

Call Upon Congress to Legalize the Present Standard.

Cleveland, Sept. 6.—The bankers of the United States assembled in convention here Wednesday declared themselves in favor of the establishment of the gold standard in this country upon an unequivocal basis, that all government obligations and legal tender notes be redeemed in gold coin, and that legal tender notes when deposited in the treasury shall be reissued.

The resolution was greeted with applause when submitted to the convention by E. O. Leach of the New York City Bank and ably seconded by Myron T. Herrick of this city in a forcible speech. The bankers called upon the next congress to enact the legislation recommended. The resolution adopted reads as follows:

"The bankers of the United States most earnestly recommend that the congress of the United States at its next session enact a law to more firmly and unequivocally establish the gold standard in this country by providing that the gold dollar, which under existing laws is the unit of value, shall be the standard and measure of all value in the United States; that all the obligations of the government and all paper money, including the circulating notes of national banks, shall be redeemable in gold coin, and that the legal tender notes of the United States, when paid into the treasury, shall not be re-issued, except upon the deposit of an equivalent amount of gold coin."

Walker Hill, vice-president of the American Bankers' association and president of the American Exchange Bank of St. Louis, Mo., was nominated for the presidency of the executive meeting of the nominating committee to-day, and his election is practically assured. Alvah Trowbridge, who retired yesterday from the chairmanship of the executive council, is the nominee for the office of vice-president.

CHICAGO GETS ENCAMPMENT

Next G. A. R. Meeting to Be Held in the Illinois City.

CONTEST FOR COMMANDER.

Indications Are That Col. Albert A. Shaw of New York Will Be Chosen—Johnson Will Fill Out the Unexpired Term.

Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 7.—Chicago won the next Grand Army encampment, with ease, Salt Lake City and Denver having withdrawn from the race in favor of Chicago. This leaves Illinois unpledged and free to support whom it will for commander in chief. The indications are that the majority of its delegates will vote for Col. Albert A. Shaw of New York, Pennsylvania, which had been uncertain, at a meeting Wednesday, committed itself to Col. Shaw.

The real business of the encampment began Wednesday with the assembling of the veterans in the Grand opera-house. The delegates did not hold the customary open meeting, owing to the large amount of business to be transacted. The encampment is made up of 344 delegates from the various states and territories, 180 department officers, 111 national officers and post commanders in chief and 682 post department commanders, the total voting strength being 1,252.

The report of Thomas J. Steward, adjutant-general, was as follows:

"The total membership of the Grand Army of the Republic in good standing June 30, 1898, was 7,213 posts, with a membership of 305,003; December 31, 1898, 7,178 posts, with a membership of 298,747, and June 30, 1899, 6,965 posts, with a membership of 287,981. Expended in relief during the year, $180,955.64.

"The year 1890 was the high-water mark in membership (409,489). Every year since then has shown a decrease, and it is not likely any year in the future will show a gain over losses, although enough comrades and shipmates of the army and navy of the civil war period yet remain to make such a thing possible. Each year shows an increasing death rate among the membership. Surely the Grand Army of the Republic is marching into the shadows. How important, therefore, that with each recurring year we apply to the administration of the affairs of the order the most practical and business-like principles and methods. One year ago I reported a decrease of $346.33 in per capita tax received, as compared with the previous year, and said then the decrease would be greater in amount each year. This year there is a decrease of $431.41 over last year, in two years $777.74. The decrease in the sale of supplies over the year ending June 30, 1898, is $2,242.22."

The surgeon-general, Albert S. Pierce, reported that during the last eighteen months 11,083 deaths had occurred in the Grand Army. There are, the report states, 1,672 deserving sick and maimed soldiers not receiving pensions. In government and state homes for soldiers and sailors there are 6,431 inmates and fifty-four old sailors and old soldiers are in almshouses.

A committee on resolutions was then appointed consisting of one member from each of the forty-five departments. Senior Vice-Commander Johnson, as commander-in-chief, was elected to serve the unexpired term of the late Col. Sexton. Commander Johnson will continue in office until the end of this encampment. Daniel Ross of Wilmington, Del., junior vice-commander, was elevated to the office of senior vice-commander, succeeding Col. Johnson.

The first business after recess was the selection of a place for the next encampment, and Chicago was chosen by acclamation. The report of the committee on pensions was then read. After a discussion lasting nearly four hours the report was referred back to the committee on pensions, with instructions that it be presented at today's session, embodying recommendations and resolutions.

The greatest care was taken that the report of the committee on pensions should not be made public. The Women's Relief corps elected Mrs. Harriet J. Badde, Connecticut, president.

There were lively times at the session of the fourteenth annual convention of the National Association of Naval Veterans. A resolution providing for the admission of participants in the Spanish war to membership in the association started a quarrel, and the result was that there is now a split in the organization. The vote on the resolution was overwhelmingly against admitting the men of the late war. When the result was announced a number of delegates walked out in a body. It is their intention to start an opposition association, to be known as the United States Veteran Navy, and the headquarters will probably be in New York city.

Marble That Is Well-Known.

Perhaps Carrara of all marbles is most famous and best known. It is always used in the finest statues. The Apuan Alps of Italy hold the quarries. Indeed, the mountains are nearly solid marble and 2,000 years' work has not made much impression on their treasures.

FOR TAX ON CHURCH PROPERTY

Decision at Washington Means Much to Religious Denominations.

Washington, Sept. 7.—A decision was rendered Wednesday by the commissioner of internal revenue that will be interesting to the members of all religious denominations. The bishop of the Roman Catholic church at Harrisburg, Pa., recently died. Under the practice of the church title to all its property is vested in the bishops of the different dioceses. When the selection of the late bishop's successor was pending the question of the operation of the war revenue law came up. The new bishop, upon assuming office, prepared a will under which his executors must transfer the church property to his successors. The commissioner of internal revenue holds that such transactions are liable to a stamp tax of $1 per $1,000 of property transferred.

Unless this decision is reconsidered or overruled, all transfers of church property will hereafter be subject to the tax until the war revenue law is repealed or amended. The total value of church property in the United States is placed in the last census at over $679,000,000, of which the Roman Catholic church holds $118,069,746. This is the first time within the knowledge of the revenue officials when church property has been subjected to a federal tax.

REVOLUTION IN VENEZUELA.

State Department Hears of Movement for South American Change.

Washington, Sept. 7.—After an unusually long period of peace trouble has again appeared in Venezuela, and a revolutionary movement is in progress. The information has come to the state department from an unofficial source, but one believed to be trustworthy. The extent of the movement is not known here. Orders will be issued to the cruiser Detroit to proceed at once to La Guayra, Venezuela, in view of the disturbed condition of affairs in that country, to safeguard the interests and lives of Americans. The Detroit is with Sampson's fleet at Philadelphia.

Would Not Withdraw Troops.

San Francisco, Cal., Sept. 7.—William Jennings Bryan, in an address here "Educated," said he believed that our government, in establishing the Philippine republic, should extend to its people the same protection that it is now giving to the republics of South and Central America—protection from outside interference, and unhampered freedom to work out their destiny. Mr. Bryan stated that he did not favor the withdrawal of our troops from the Philippines before a stable government is established.

No Action in Schell Case.

Frankfort, Ind., Sept. 7.—The Northwestern Indiana conference of the Methodist church held its first business session here Wednesday, with Bishop Hurst presiding. It is the opinion here that the conference will take no notice of the charges against Dr. Schell unless to appoint an informal committee to hear Dr. Schell's statement, should he care to make one. The majority of the members are said not to endorse the fight being made against the doctor by Dr. Parkhurst and his followers.

Tornado Damage in Ohio.

Bowling Green, O., Sept. 7.—Bowling Green barely escaped being torn up by a tornado shortly before midnight Tuesday night. Just north of the town a strip two miles long and half a mile wide was cleared of almost everything. One person was seriously hurt and two others slightly injured; fifteen or twenty oil well derricks were blown down, a couple of barns unroofed, windmills demolished, orchards destroyed and the crops badly injured.

THE HANAN MAN'S $5.00 SHOE....

The FIT—Through the thorough scientific building principles of the Hanan foot form shoe styles, this make has become famous throughout the entire globe and is the only make which carries the merits of independent style and foot fitting qualities calculated with all due regard for the comfort that other makers try to imitate.

The TEST has been made by the millions at home and abroad who wear the HANAN SHOE and they tell of the enduring qualities of the stock that enters into its make-up. They SURVIVE all other makes, holding their original graceful shape on any of the foot form lasts under all kinds of treatment. The LAST that comes FIRST this fall is the NEW McKINLEY. See it in our window or step inside and try on a pair—no trouble—you don't need to buy; will be glad to show it to you. On the Bridge. SPENCER. The Newest
